REMEMBER WHEN . . .

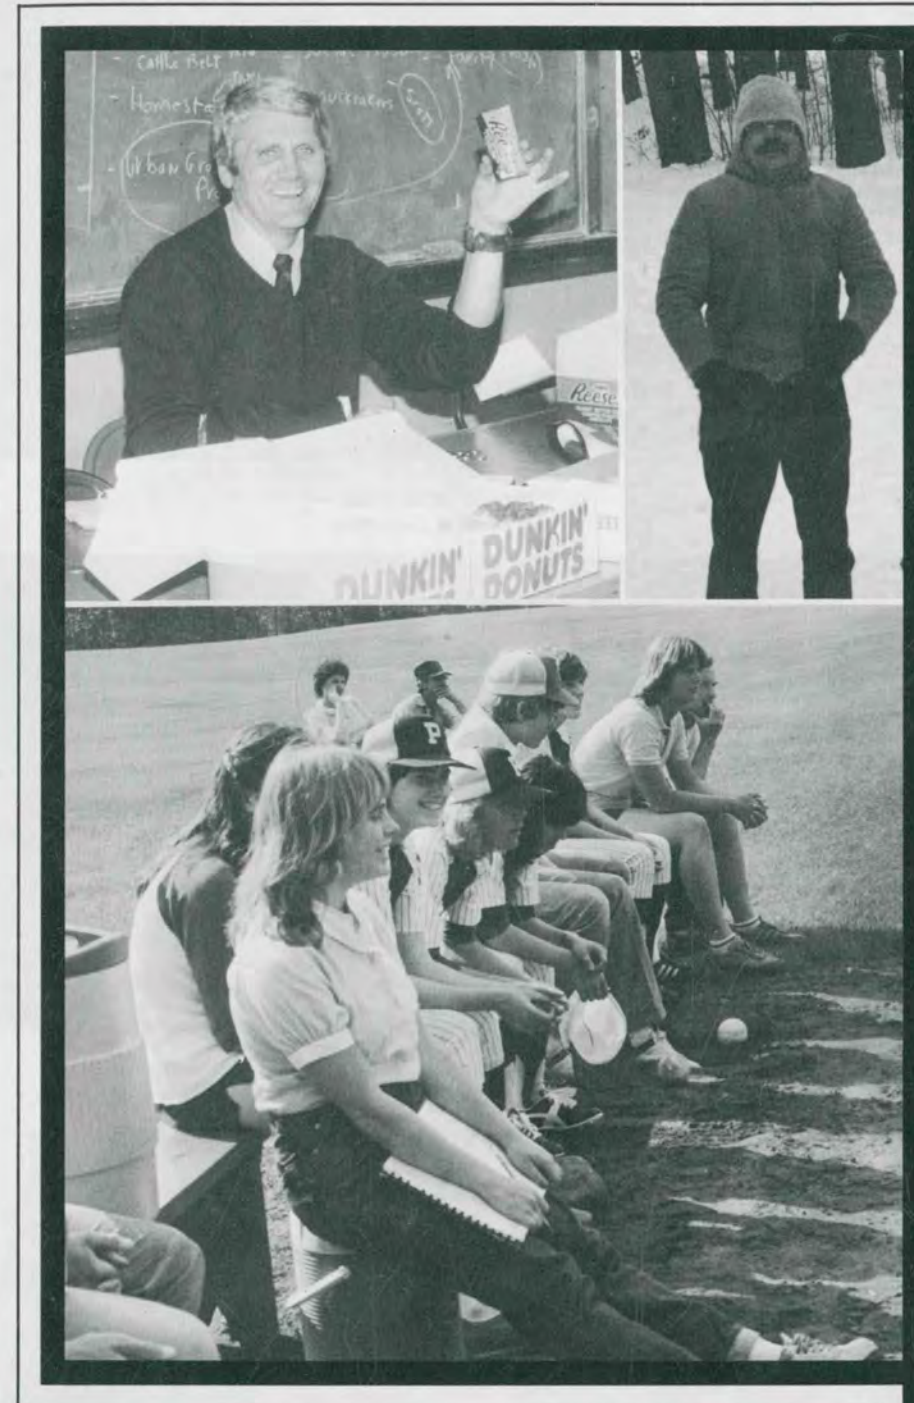

Remember when you entered school
Mr. Tracy enforced the golden rule.
Your first day was getting lost
and seeing new faces.
They came from Proctor,
Chittenden and other places.
You were unsure and full of fears,
But you learned to cope
throughout the years.
Let's remember our old school days,
From talent shows to French dictees.
The winter carnival was always a blast.
And Prom night went by much too fast.
Substitute teachers were easy to con.
They were always confused as to what was going on.
Remember Maine and the seashore.
Classes were always such a bore.
The times have passed and friendships have grown PHS and its people have become every ones home.
Saying goodbye to friends who cared,
is hard because of the memories
we've shared.
Look how fast the years have gone
past,
The only things left are memories that last . . .

DEDICATION

This year's recipient of the 1982 yearbook dedication is a well known, lovable individual — a person who is involved in the school as well as the community, a person who is known as "Mom" by the kids and Mrs. Dependable by the teachers, a person who serves as the senior class advisor, the junior prom organizer, and the general of the office. She is always there when needed and strives to please all.

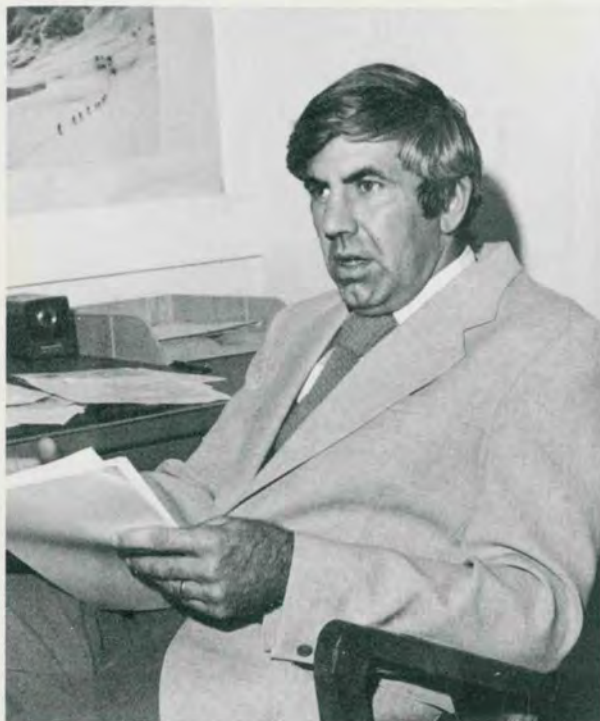

We are proud to present this honor to Bonnie Blanchard, our loyal secretary and friend.

FRESHMEN

This year's loud but energetic freshmen class was packed with class spirit. Although one group usually did all the work, as a class they won the candy sale and put on three dances. The last of these dances helped to earn $50 for the Vermont Achievement Center. Advisors were Pauline Vita and Bob Abrahamson. The class of '84 made its mark again this year, and what a mark it was. Not only did they sponsor 2 successful dances, but they also captured first place in the Winter Carnival. This enthusiastic group completed its community projects for 1982-83 by designing a marble sign for P.H.S. The sophomores also took turns cleaning the school after the dreaded "BREAD EPISODE". The class of '84 isn't what it used to be. It's better! Missing: Bryan Nightengale, Chris Chapin

JUNIORS

This year the junior class was a super group. They placed sixth in the Winter Carnival with terrific spirit and enthusiasm and put on a fast going lunch. Kathy Cota, Chris Bearor, Bill Coons, and Rick Austin were chosen to participate in the Regional Rutland County High School Spelling Contest placing 2nd against six other high schools. For a community project the class supervised a Halloween Party at the Proctor Elementary School. The juniors also sponsored the Jr.-Sr. Prom. The class treasury was depleted after they furnished flowers for graduation. The advisors for the 11th grade were Mr. Brown, Mrs. Loso, and Miss Johnson.

PROCTORIAN

The 1981-82 Proctorian, under the leadership of editor Karen Benoit and advisor Pauline Vita, and its hard-working staff members successfully published the '82 yearbook. Business manager was Marie Smith with Kathy Cota acting as her assistant. The cover of the book was created and sketched by Debbie Johnson. Working hard during free periods and work-night meetings the staff was able to put out one of its best books ever.

SUTHERLAND

After several years as the Sutherland advisor Mrs. Madeline Sherman gave up her job to newcomer Arlen Bloodworth. Editor Lisa Young directed the staff with sports editor John Russell and feature editor Sharon Tilden. Eric Supancic was head photographer while Louis Beauchain and Mary Freeborn were busy cartoonists. The Sutherland, with much hard work and determination, was successfully published 5 times throughout the year.

CHORUS

Chorus at P.H.S. is always a popular activity as students use their homeroom period to express themselves by singing. The chorus was involved in the first Music Department Christmas assembly as well as a spring concert and graduation. Three talented girls were selected for the All-State chorus; Kim Sanborn, Kathi Clark, and Lynn Pilcher went through their auditions and were part of the All-State Festival in Rutland.

BAND

The music department kept the band and marching band very busy. The district music festival was hosted by Proctor High this year. Karen Patch was selected for the All-State stage band and Mary Freeborn for the All-State orchestra. Kathi Clark went to the All-New England festival. The band as well as the chorus was involved in the first P.H.S. Christmas Assembly which had a great turnout.

The marching band was involved in 3 parades this year: the Loyalty Day parade, All-State parade, and Memorial Day parade in Proctor.

MAJORETTES & FLAG UNIT

The majorettes, coached by Karen Blanchard, worked hard to raise money for new uniforms. There were 4 returning members and 4 new majorettes.

The flag unit, coached by Lynn Tucker, showed its ambition by putting together a great routine and also earning money for new uniforms. Carissa Deyette and Nancy Atwood led the band carrying the Proctor banner.

FRENCH CLUBS

This year there were 2 French Clubs, one consisting of all French 2 members and the other of the French 3 class. The French 2 students sold candles to raise money to go out to dinner at the French restaurant in Granville, New York. The French 3 class had a raffle, bottle drive, and did home-lawn work for people. They plan to use their money to help pay for their trip to Montreal.

CLOSE-UP

The '82 Close-Up program was directed by Lee Orvis and Peter Osterhoudt. Eight students were fortunate to be selected to go to Washington to learn about the U.S. government. The students went through many meetings and interviews before the selection was made. Participants were Rose Mossey, Reeny Triller, Lisa Young, Andrea Kugler, Trish Mendenhall, Tracy Chamberland, Lynn Pilcher, and Mary Smiel.

Raising money for the trip consisted of selling donuts and juice every morning in the cafeteria and candy and donuts after school. Students soon became accustomed to this new idea, and the Close-Up program was able to raise money to help pay for the expenses.

STUDENT COUNCIL

This year's Student Council was a goal-seeking council. Lynn Pilcher, president, had one major goal for her fellow members — to make them more a part of the student body. The Council worked with teachers and administration in setting new guidelines for homework, helped in sponsoring the talent show, donated to the WSYB Christmas Fund, adopted one child from Room 108, had two tennis tournaments, and held their annual blood drawing.

DRAMA

The Drama Club did a rather unusual play this year. "With Apologies to Luigi Perendello" was written by former club director Becky Fenton and was directed by Ted Pendleton with help from the students in the Club. Unfortunately, the play didn't go any further than districts in competition, but it was also performed at the drama festival in Rutland on May 15.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

This year's National Honor Society elected nine new members to its group. Advisor Roy Pilcher and President Lisa LaFrance arranged to have Berna Seward, an ex-alcoholic, speak during the induction. New members were Kim Goodrich, Flori Navarrete, Tracy Chamberlain, Lynn Pilcher, Kathy Cota, Lisa Young, Chris Bearor, John Russell, and Herb Pelkey.

Old members included Vice-President Scott Anderson, Treasurer Reeny Triller, Secretary Karen Benoit, Joleen Bartlett, Ellen Tilden, Jeanne Curtis, Nancy Atwood, and Clarena Jones.

ART CLUB

Many talented P.H.S. artists participated in three spring art events this year. During March the club went to a regional art exhibit at Woodstock High School. In May and the beginning of June they had a Proctor High Fine Arts Festival; the group also went to an art exhibit at Moon Brook Gallery in Rutland. The club is making plans for a trip to Shelburne Museum and New York for next year. Members were Debbie Blow, Tim Blow, Chris Bump, Ken Burgess, Darren Carter, Jeff Cook, Sue Fletcher, Paul Funk, Doug Lertola, Rose Mossey, Flori Navarrete, Val Reed, Joe Saceric, Sue Svoronic, and Mary Freeborn.

DRIVER EDUCATION

During the 1981-82 school year a total of 51 students signed up for Driver Education. Of these one-third elected to take the summer option. The classroom phase of the course was taught during homeroom period while the driving phase took place at the end of the school day.

ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE

The Assembly Committee was able to host three assemblies although money was lacking. The first was singer and guitar player Dick McCormack. At Christmas time the P.H.S. music department put on an entertaining program for the student body. In the spring the Committee invited magician Phil Moore to astound everyone with a variety of magic tricks. Funds hopefully will be increased by next year for future assemblies.

M. Horvath, D. Caceres; missing, T. Perkins

LIBRARY AIDES

The AV equipment as well as the library materials were well organized by Mrs. Sherman and her helpers.

The AV staff included Mike Horvath, David Caceres, and Ted Perkins. The library aides (as shown in the photograph to the left) — Jeanne Curtis, Rose Mossey, Lisa Young, and Laurie Mecier — all put in a lot of their free time to help Mrs. Sherman keep the library in order.

SHOOTING STAR

This year's prom featuring Short Change was successfully put on by the juniors. The new king and queen, Scott Anderson and Rose Mossey, were crowned by Chris Cook and Zollie Horvath.

The juniors, with the aid of Bonnie Blanchard, did a spectacular job with their theme Shooting Star. There was a great turnout, and everyone had a good time.

WINTER CARNIVAL

The winter carnival was a big success this year. The sophomores and the eighth grade were in close competition throughout the day, but the sophomores were stronger and became the overall winners. The eighth grade, therefore, took second place while the seniors came through with third.

There was a great performance at the talent show because of the outstanding number of participants and Kevin Thompson standing in as MC. Kathi Clark and Tricia Matusiak with their superb harmony took first place while Jana Jones won second and Dan Gilliam and his dancers received third.

AWARDS' BANQUET

TOGETHER IN

OUR LAST TRIP

It was 6:45 in the morning,
When we finally boarded the bus.
After months of frustration and planning,
Moms and dads who were trying to stop us,
We waved our good-byes with the sunrise,
With visions of blue, sunny skies
And daydreams of warm, sandy beaches
But, above all, a break from the teachers.

The chaperons rode up front, quite uneasy
"Crank it up for AC/DC".
They must have been wondering,
"What are we getting into
Taking the seniors to Maine and the Sea-View?"

The Lemon Tree Inn was where we had plans to stay
But when they found out we weren't senior citizens
They said, "No way!"

Just as soon as we had checked in,
We ran to the ocean,
Rolled up our jeans,
And splashed in like children.
Then picking up seashells and softly
reminiscing,
We thought of old friends that we soon
would be missing.

The bus ride home was long and dreary;
It was obvious everyone was a bit weary.
We were talking about all our wild pillow fights
And how late we stayed up both of those nights.
It was heartbreaking coming back, you bet,
But the good times we had
We will never forget.

VARSITY SOCCER

This year's soccer team was tri-captained by John Fiske, Kevin Ratti and Scott Anderson. The teams hard work and successful record of 12-1-1 brought them to be champions of the M.V.L. and a bye into the semi-finals, where they hosted Northfield and won by a score of 4-0. The tradition of P.H.S. continued when the soccer team traveled to Randolph to meet former basketball rival Hazen in the M.V.L. State Soccer Championships. This year the boys had to share the championship with Hazen after 2 ten-minute overtimes which ended in a 1-1 deadlock.

Proctor's overall record was 13-1-2 and can be credited to the coaching of Paul Austin and training of John Cioffredi.

VARSITY FIELD HOCKEY

The team had a super year with a record of 14-1-1. This year the girls were co-captained by seniors Karen Benoit and Lisa LaFrance. The excellent skill the girls showed brought them to a 13-0-1 CVGAL crown.

The girls played Whitingham in the quarter finals and won 3-0. Proctor went in to host Thetford in the semi-finals and had an upsetting game. They lost 1-0 and were stopped at a chance for the Class M State title, a championship they well deserved.

Proctor was coached by Lynn Johnson who was selected CVGAL coach of the year.

J.V. SOCCER

The J. V. soccer team had a very successful season posting nine consecutive wins to finish with a record of 9-1. They outscored their opponents 19-5 and had 5 shut-outs on the season. The team was led offensively by Darren Triller and John Soulia. Definitive stars were Mike Gravelle, Chris Chapin and John Miglorie. Next year's team is looking forward to another successful season as the one they accomplished this year.

J.V. FIELD HOCKEY

This year's J.V. team, coached by Teri Rinehart, finished 5-4-3 with three shut-outs. The team was paced by the scoring of Tammy Poljacik, scoring four goals, with help from Dawn Clark and Michelle Rogers, each adding two. On the defensive side of the field, Amy LaFrance proved very reliable for making those big plays at key times. The team M.V.P. was Beth Warren who worked hard all season and never gave up.

VARSITY GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The varsity girls had a troubled season despite their second-year coach Teri Rinehart. Even with many talented individual players the team could not seem to put things together and finished with an 8-13 record. In post-season play they met Richford and lost 37-33.

The team was co-captained by Lisa King and Reeny Triller. The offense was led by Reeny Triller and Kim Goodrich while the defense and rebounding were handled by sophomore Kris Johnson and Lisa King. With many returning players the team hopefully awaits next season.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The varsity boys had a regular season record of 8-12. The scoring was varied with different team members scoring highly each game. Senior John Fiske led the defense and juniors Darren Carter and Eric Supancic and sophomore Lane Simon the rebounding. The Phantoms won a tough game against Green Mountain to qualify for the play-offs but were then defeated by Thetford in their first play-off game.

CROSS COUNTRY

The cross country runners had a challenging season. The five-member team had a slow start, but each runner steadily improved throughout the season. With top runner Mike McKinnell the quintet went to a rigorous and very muddy state meet in Montpelier. Coach Hoffacker was pleased with the group and sees the outlook for next year as bright. The team put out a tremendous effort and each did his part.

L-r, S. Alexander, M. McKinnell, Coach Hoffacker, A. Covell, C. Forrest; missing, J. Barros

JV BOYS' BASKETBALL

The JV team had a fantastic season. The team, coached by Mike Keith, had an overall record of 13-8, including the West Rutland Tournament in which they came in third. The team was co-captained by sophomore Chris King and freshman Chris Barton. Top player Chris Barton was eventually moved to the varsity squad. The JV team has a lot of talent for upcoming varsity teams.

J.V. GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year the girls' J. V. basketball team had a record of 10-9. Coach Moe Doyle worked hard with the girls for their winning record. They took second place at the West Rutland tournament, losing to Mill River by one point. The team's leading scorers were Ann Pentkowski and Tina Barker who also did a super job of defense, causing many turnovers.

J.V. CHEERLEADING

The J.V. squad, coached by Joan Faulkner, consisted of 6 freshmen and one sophomore. These girls helped the varsity squad earn money for new uniforms and developed their own floor routine — a first. Captains were Amy LaFrance and Michelle Rogers.

Kneeling, S. Steele, D. Clark, T. Poljacik; standing, M. Sargent, A. LaFrance, D. L'Herauld, M. Rogers

VARSITY CHEERING

The varsity cheering squad was once again coached by Joan Faulkner. This year, under her watchful eye, the girls changed their old image to a new one after attending cheering camp. They went out on their own and made money for new uniforms. The squad was captained by Rose Mossey and Sharon Reta and consisted of four juniors and two sophomores. Toward the end of the season Kim Baccei appeared at the games as the cheerleaders' mascot.

Sitting, S. Marceau, C. Izzo; standing, B. Pentkowski, R. Mossey, L. Young, S. Reta, S. Chamberlain, S. Tilden

This year's team was coached by the talented Wade Mitchell. Mr. Mitchell used his own style and a lot of practice to bring his energetic team all the way to the semi-finals in Enosburg. Despite the fact that the Phantoms lost to Enosburg by a score of 8-4, they beat their arch rivals "The Golden Horde" in the quarter finals. In the last inning the score read 5-1 and stayed that way throughout the last out of the game.

Sophomore Ed Poljacik and senior southpaw Kevin Ratti did most of the pitching while Eric Supancic saw the action from behind the plate. The team was captained by seniors John Fiske and Skip Poljacik. The Phantoms' season record was 11-6, and even though the team is losing 5 seniors, it will bring up a few JVs to make up for the loss.

Ed Poljacik and Eric Supancic both made the M.V.L. All-Star team.

Sitting, Mgr. M. Clough, Scorekeeper B. Pentkowski, Mgr. D. Lertola; R 2, R. Jalbert, B. Adams, S. Poljacik, K. Ratti, J. Fiske, D. Swahn, Coach Mitchell; R 3, E. Poljacik, S. Sule, L. Simon, S. Stratton, D. Carter, E. Supancic, P. Lasky, J. Russell

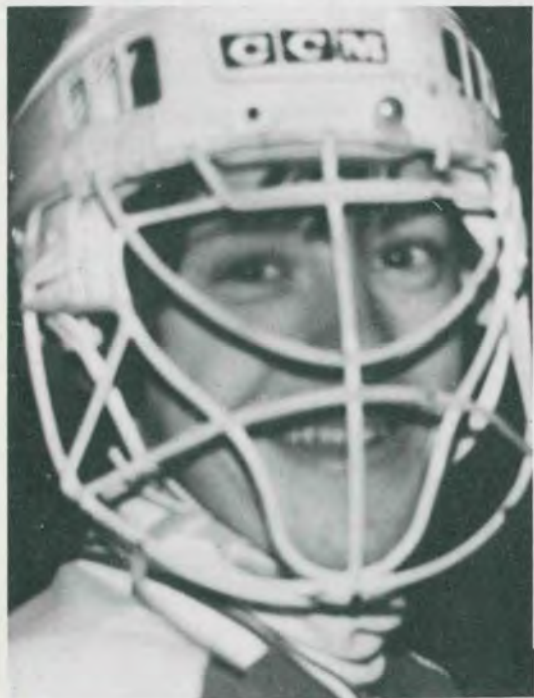

The softball team, coached by Lynn Johnson and assisted by Bruce Gee, compiled a record of 5-11, one which did not show the team's ability and potential. Despite the season's record the Phantomettes overpowered Otter Valley for the first time in three years and defeated Burr and Burton but unfortunately did not make the play-offs.

Seniors Lisa King and Karen Benoit and junior Kim Goodrich were this year's captains of the team. Nancy Smiel improved tremendously on the mound, and the young players showed enthusiasm and determination for next year's season.

Sitting, K. Benoit, L. King; R 2, A. Pentkowski, D. Blow, K. Johnson, K. Sanborn, K. Goodrich; R 3, Mgr. S. Chamberlain, K. Chamberlain, T. Barker, V. Bishop, J. Nelson, Mgr. S. Curtis; R 4, Coach Johnson, N. Smiel, K. Benoit, S. Tracy; missing, J. Champine

RAHA OTTERS

The Otters of the '81-'82 season became the Connecticut Valley League Champions in early March by defeating Brattleboro at Dartmouth College 4-2.

The team consisted of students from Proctor: Skip Poljacik, Robbie Jalbert, Robbie Mullin, Mike Gravelle, Doug Todd, Steve Moran; nine from Otter Valley, two from Fair Haven, and one from Rutland, Coach Brian Collamore and assistant coaches Jim Murray and Don Adams.

Winning 13 and only taking 2 losses, they claimed the CVL Championship for the second time in three years.

R 1, P. Lasky, C. King, R. Shackelford, M. Santoro; R 2, S. Sanborn, R. Mullin, S. Anderson, Coach Wolyneec, J. May

GOLF

This year's golf team competed in the Southern Vermont Conference which is made up of all high schools in southern Vermont. Despite the larger schools the Proctor Phantoms played, the team had a 10-15 record. With 5 of the top 7 players returning next year the team should do well.

J.V. BASEBALL

The J. V. team ended their season with a 2-8 record, with the wins over rivals West Rutland and Otter Valley. Sophomore southpaws Dave Caceres and Mike Taranovich led the team in hitting and pitching with the help of Mike Gravelle's only homerun of the season.

The team was coached by Mike Keith, and despite this year's record they have a lot of potential for next year's varsity team.

Kneeling, R. Barker, R. Hill, G. King, C. Hughes, M. Gravelle, S. Moran; R 2, J. Miglorie, B. Gilliam, S. Fletcher, D. Blow, C. Barton, M. Taranovich, D. Caceres, M. Swahn, Coach Keith; R 3, P. Lasky, C. King, R. Shackelford, M. Santoro

The seventh grade was a lively group who worked well together. They placed a fighting fifth in the Winter Carnival taking fourth place in the snow sculpture with a soccer ball. The seventh graders learned sign language to communicate with Shelley Rider and also memorized the Vermont counties by singing "Yankee Doodle" in Mr. Sheehan's class. Advisors were Mr. Sheehan and Mr. Orvis.

GIRLS' SPORTS

This year's junior high field hockey was coached once again by Lynne Blair. The team improved a lot from last year and had a good season, ending it with a record of 1-4-1. Team captains were eighth graders Kris Triller and Julie Anderson.

The junior high basketball's Perfect Seven was coached by first-year Judy Shortsleeves. The team ended the season with a perfect 17-0. The girls competed in three Junior High tournaments, winning each of them. The team will be losing five of its Perfect Seven members to the J.V. squad. Captains were Kris Triller and Julie Anderson.

The junior high cheerleading team was coached by Jean Hughes and captained by Shari Hughes. The enthusiastic eight-member squad learned a lot of new cheers from the cheerleading camp a couple of them attended.

BOYS' SPORTS

The junior high soccer team was coached by Paul Wager. This year was very disappointing to the team, but next year it should improve with new faces and the skills they will acquire. The team was captained by Tom Valach, Dan Gilliam, and David Rogers.

The junior high basketball team was coached by Wade Mitchell and Barry Barton and captained by Dan Gilliam. The team had a disappointing year, ending with a 2-14 record. Hopefully next year will be a better one with more experience and added talent.

JUNIOR HIGH MUSIC

The junior high music program was not only a first but also a success. The chorus and regular and stage bands performed like professionals at the Christmas and spring concerts. A jazz quartet, flute duet, and several soloists were all part of the talent displayed by the 7th and 8th graders.

THE BROOMSTICK BEAUTY

The 7th and 8th graders performed an original, "ghastly" production of "The Broomstick Beauty" at the high school. Cast members were Nancy Tilden, Angela Fletcher, Kris Triller, Sue Simonds, Chip Partaledis, and Tom Warren. Supporting ghouls were Kim Baccei, Steve Harmon, Sean Ward, Todd Landon, Pauline Barber, Angie Barton, DeDe Jasmin, Craig Mullan, and Chris Barker. Directed by Becky Fenton, the play was part of the community-service program at P.H.S.
